Reporter: You let her stay at your house.

Julie King: Saturday night.

Reporter: Tell me about that.

Julie King: Umm, she had called about 6:30-7:00 umm, her and the kids didn't have a place to stay and asked if she could come back and spend the night, and you know, the kids were wet, and like I said they had no place to stay so I told her it was fine she could stay overnight to spend the night and then we'd have to figure something out again for Sunday because she wasn't going to stay at my house other than that day, that night, and a, like I said, I, I didn't see the baby, Elaina at all, Sunday, not at all cause she said she was in the bedroom sleeping. I thought I had heard her about 9-9:30 in the morning but I never saw the baby at all, not at all. So dad had came by to pick her up, they had taken the oldest, Kylee and she wasn't going to let her have Elaina and then we had talked her into it, she went into get her and supposedly the baby was gone.

Reporter: Your reaction was what, this was your home?

Julie King: I thought when she said she was "gone" I thought she meant that she wasn't going to get her kids back from the dad. I never thought in a million years that it was because the baby was gone, actually gone. So my son and I went right out the back door, we looked in the pool, we looked in the garage, then him and my nephew went down the alley, looking up and down the alley for her. A, I had, everywhere, I

Reporter: And your son hadn't seen her?

Julie King: He said he saw her about 12:30 or so when Angela had changed...

Reporter: Midnight or noon on Sunday?

Julie King: Noon on Sunday and she had, she changed the baby's diaper, the baby had given her a cup and laid her down for a nap. And I guess that was the last he had seen her.

Julie King: Angela was in the house the whole time that TJ and his father was here, when we were trying to talk her in letting her take the baby with her, with them, and she decided yes she would and she was in the house about 15 minutes or so and my son come got me and said the baby was missing, and that's...

Reporter: You gave up your home one night for them to stay and woke up to your worse nightmare.

Julie King: Worse nightmare. I never thought in a million years that this would happen at my home. I never thought in a million years. I believed everything she told me, I thought she didn't have a place to stay. Come to find out last night she did and for whatever reason she didn't want to say, so she lied to us. She lied to us.

Reporter: ??

Julie King: If anybody has any information, knows where she's at, anything, bring the baby home safe, that's all we want. In the end, it's just to bring the baby home safe.
